

BATHUKAMMA FESTIVAL CELEBRATIONS

Bathukamma festival represents the cultural spirit of Telangana, the festival is regarded as the spring festival of Goddess Gauri.

As a prelude to the Bathukamma festival, the students and staff of Avanathi P.G. College celebrated Bathukamma Sambaralu with joy and gaiety in the college campus at Dilshuknagar on 13th October 2018.

Bathukamma Sambaralu began with excitement as the students and staff were dressed in their traditional best with sarees, half- sarees and men were dressed in ethnic wear. The students and staff designed various Rangolis and gathered various flowers and decorated the campus by which the college was filled with the festive look.

Beautiful flower stacks was arranged in a unique style in the shape of a temple which consisted of various seasonal flowers. Exquisite Bathukammas were prepared with beautiful floral decorations by the girl students of both MBA and MCA. The little floral stacks were worshiped by the students and staff by encircling the Bathukamma and danced in unison, clapping and singing to the music of lilting folk songs.

It was a joyous environment in the campus and showed how the new generation are connected to traditions and actually relish celebrating.

