

Fresher's enthrall Avanthi campus

A students orientation programme was organized at Avanthi campus on 9th August 2018 for the aspirants of MBA and MCA course for the academic year 2018-19 . the event was graced by the Guest of Honor Swamy shitikantananda, Vivekanda Institute of Human and Excellence, Ramkrishna Matt, Chief Guest Prof. A. Krishnaiah, Director ED Cell, Osmania University, Special Guest Mr. Samuel Christopher Gibson along with Dr. Jayaprada, HR Director Avanthi Group of Institutions. The event was started by a devotional song invoking god to bless the students with the light of knowledge and land lighting of lamp to expel darkness and spread the light of wisdom. The guest were perfect combination from the field of Academics, Corporate and spirituality. It was a careful mixture to motivate students to pursue their future endeavors.

Guest of Honor Swamy shitikantananda addressed the students on the concept of existence of universe, success of life and approaches they should have towards life. The speech encourage students to think out of the box instead of "being job seekers be a job generator and be the leader of the world. The students had a great impact on the mind by swamyji divine speech and later Dr. Jayaprada thanked Swamyji and felicitated.

Dr. Jayaprada congratulated Freshers for the right choice of selecting Avanti PG College for the MBA & MCA course as the management completely dedicated towards serving the students community 24x7. She assured the students of all round development and all the activities of B Schools will be taken up.

This was followed by college report presented by Dr. Apparao, Principal of Avanthi PG College. He informed the students about the various activities taken up in the year 2017 and how vibrant the college atmosphere is. He motivated the students to be a part of all the activities conducted in the college.

Syed Ahmed Qadri , placement officer Avanthi PG College spoke about the various placement opportunities provided to the students in various MNC's. He inspired students to acquire skills which would fetch them job of their interest. He assured the parents that no matter the child is a slow learner or sharp will have the opportunity to seek a job in campus selections with good annual package.

Special Guest Mr. Samuel Christopher Gibson motivational speech inspired students to set up the goals and to be focused on it. He also spoke about various do and don'ts to be followed by the students to achieve success in the career goals. His speech was interactive and the students could relate to the thought process of achieving their individual career goals.

Chief Guest Prof. A. Krishnaiah speech was educative and created awareness about the various entrepreneurship programs which are being conducted at University for the new startups. He inculcated fresh ideas to the students to have innovative start up. The session was followed by vote of thanks and felicitation of guests with mementoes by Dr. Jayaprada and Dr. Apparao.

The program was concluded by the speech of Dr. Jalaja, HOD of MBA Dept and Mr. Naveen Chandra, HOD of MCA Dept along with Mrs. Annapurna with the academic activities to be conducted in the college for acquiring knowledge and skills by the students. The students were introduced to faculty members and were assured that their future is safe hands.