

GUEST LECTURE

Avanathi college aims at redefining education , in this effort a lecture was organized on “Awareness programme on commodity derivatives” in the campus of Avanathi PG college Dilsukhnagar on 26th October 2018.

The guest for the session was Mr Mallesu, who with his enormous experience in the field of commodity and money market enlightened the students on practical workings in the derivative market .

It turned out to be a thorough feast to the finance students of MBA second years. it was of great interest to HR and marketing students as well.

A Q and A session was organized, where students came up with their inquisitiveness and posed many questions to have a better understanding about the topic.

Felicitation of guest by Dr Apparao –Principal Avanthi PG college.
